ADRENALIN RUSH WITH CTC HOLIDAYS

Singapore, 29 June 2006 – For the first time, Commonwealth Travel Service Corporation Pte Ltd (CTC Holidays) — the exclusive distributor, brings you ‘Super Speed Challenge’ at the Shanghai International Circuit on 23rd July 2006! The second event in its series of five, ‘Super Speed Challenge’ is a one-day car racing event combining the most popular racing cars in Asia with celebrities in the entertainment industry.

This adrenalin-rushing event is guaranteed to win smiles to car enthusiasts who are eager to watch some car actions with the three different types of racing competitions at the ‘Super Speed Challenge’.

The main event is the International Formula Challenge (IFC), which facilitates the exchanging of ideas among international and local racers. On the other hand, Asian GT Super Car Challenge allows the driver to use almost any type of touring car he wishes to race. Here the audience will get to see all sorts of premium racing cars from Ferraris, Porsches, Evos, Skylines, Hondas, Lotuses and the likes. Another new event in China is the D1 Drifting Competition which will have all competitors using similar Toyota Altezzas to beat the track.

The ‘Super Speed Challenge’ also includes the Super Car Model Pageant that boosts 20 contestants competing to win the crown of the Super Car Model of the year! Also expect superstar appearances for a post-event variety show. For the upcoming Super Speed Challenge in Shanghai, the main casts of Dragon Tiger Gate movie, Nicholas Tse, Shawn Yue, Donnie Yen, Dong Jie and Li Xiao Yuan, will be there to entertain the crowd!

This exciting car racing event coincides timely with the premiere of the highly anticipated Hong Kong movie, Dragon Tiger Gate, which is about three young martial arts masters emerging from the back streets of Hong Kong to help the powerless fight injustice. A two-week carnival promoting the movie will start on 8 July 2006 to kick off the movie premiere on 23 July 2006.
