Sail away to a dream holiday with Commonwealth Travel at the Singapore Cruise Fair

Exotic destinations and attractive promotions up for grabs this weekend

Singapore, 29 August 2007 – Commonwealth Travel has lined up a range of cruise as well as fly-and-cruise packages as part of the Singapore Cruise Fair this weekend. The fair opens from 31st August to 2nd September at the Singapore Cruise Centre (Level 2, Harbourfront).

Highlights of the fair include a newly-launched Costa route to the Jewels of the Far East – a 9 Day Fly/Cruise to Dubai, Oman and Bahrain. Children accompanied by two full-paying adults will get to cruise free, and attractive discounts are available for honeymooners and groups (of 7 and above) who purchase any of the Costa packages sold. Customers who purchase selected packages can even save up to $3000 per couple.

“We’re offering packages to exotic destinations such as Mauritius and South America, as well as to highly popular Mediterranean routes including Greece, Turkey and Egypt. All this and more: to bring to our valued customers the luxury of choosing your dream destination, and the relaxation and leisurely experience unique to cruise travel,” said Mr. Lee Cheun Kiat, Manager (Marketing & PR), Commonwealth Travel Service Corporation Pte Ltd.

Attractive promotions will also be bundled with Commonwealth Travel’s great-value deals. Freebies include induction cookers, Osim and Spa vouchers. Customers with UOB credit cards can enjoy up to $100 off per couple. Complimentary gifts await customers with UOB cards, UOB Cashplus and VISA card holders.

For more information on Commonwealth Travel’s packages and special deals, please call: (65) 6538 9810 or email enquiry@ctc.com.sg.
