Great deals in store at Muslim Fair this weekend

Singapore, 4 September 2007 – Muslim travelers planning a getaway to countries like China, Korea and Japan can check out the Muslim Fair this weekend. Held at the Atrium of the Muslim Converts' Association of Singapore on the 8th and 9th of September, Commonwealth Travel will present a range of customized Muslim tour packages from Harmoni Holidays – a seven-member consortium of travel agents¹ initiated by Commonwealth Travel.

From the Everland Theme Park in Korea to the Cumalikizki, a 700 year-old Ottoman Village in Turkey, customers will be spoilt for choice with the wide range of destinations available at the fair. The tour packages have also been designed specially to cater to Muslim considerations – with Halal meals and mosque visits (for selected packages) included in the itineraries to ensure Muslim customers have maximum convenience and ease during their trips.

Attractive promotions are available during the Fair. Customers who purchase tour packages will be entitled to free induction cookers worth $199 and Osim vouchers, while stocks last. UOB credit cards, UOB CashPlus and VISA card members will also stand to enjoy additional gifts and premiums.
